Obtaining an Enrollment Verification

1. Sign into PAWS and Select Student Center.

2. After accessing the Student Center, the link for the enrollment verification can be found to the left of your class schedule.

3. Select the Enrollment Verification (NSC) link, this will provide a new window that will connect you to the National Student Clearinghouse website. Note: If you have a pop-up blocker, the window may not appear. Please temporarily disable your pop-up blocker to allow the new window to appear.

4. From this page, you can select Obtain an enrollment certificate which will open the last window containing your enrollment verification.
5. The certificate will state the College’s name, Student’s name, expected graduation date, semester dates, and student status. This certificate is an official document through the National Student Clearinghouse. Please attach the Director of Records and Registration letter to your enrollment verification. Should you need more information on your enrollment verification such as GPA, please contact eh Records and Registration office.
